

Mother's Day at the Market

Yes, it is true: this weekend is Mother's Day! This is our biggest weekend of the year and the market is near capacity with vendors: long time vendors, new vendors, and even some making their once a year appearance here at the market. Its bound to be another fantastic Mother's Day weekend here at the Annex!

Get mom a gift

Yes, we could sense your panic from here. You haven't got mom anything yet. Well, we are your one stop shop: from crafts to clothing to pottery to candles to jewelry to treats to flowers, you're bound to be something for every mom out there. Check out page 3 of this newsletter for a list of all the vendors who will be here this weekend.

Take mom out

Sometimes the best gift you can give mom is your time. Bring her with to the farmers market and make a morning and/or afternoon of it! We have plenty of fresh made food for breakfast, brunch, lunch (or all three if you're that hungry). Then walk the market and maybe you can get her that gift we were talking about above (two birds, one stone me boy).

Extended hours

Want to let mom sleep in? Prefect! We are open till 2:00pm both this Saturday and Sunday. So take your time this weekend here at the farmers market.

Live music

Miles Warren and his band will be making their first appearance of the year. If you've ever been here the same weekend they are, you know the energy they add to the market. It's all but guaranteed to get mom up and dancing.

Like we said, it's the biggest weekend of the year at the market. Come be a part of the celebration and make this Mother's Day a special one for all those mom's in your life!

Thank you for choosing to be a part of the Farmers Market Annex!

Market Flowers This Month

One of the best gifts to give those mom's in your life is fresh cut flowers. I mean, who doesn't love fresh cut flowers? Now, those fantastic local bouquets may not be in season yet, but Market Flowers will have no shortage of fresh bouquets for you this weekend. They will have hundreds of fresh made bouquets to choose from in a wide range of colors and styles.

You can find Market Flowers in their normal location: inside the warehouse here at the Annex. There will also be a couple pop up booths set up over the weekend: one near the chicken along Lyndale and one near kettle corn stand.

A bouquet not you mom's thang? Looking to get her roses or tulips or sunflowers? Maybe something more unique like calla lilies or protea or ranunculus? Market Flowers has you covered with their fantastic bulk selection, available this weekend, and every Thursday though Sunday now till the end of October!

So stop by and get mom some fresh flowers, she won't be disappointed!

Meet Our Vendors For the Love of Airplants

Elise Pitoscia is the owner of For the Love of Airplants. She sells airplants, or Tillandsias as they are actually called (Cue the "The More You Know" gif). She sells the plants both individually as well as in a wide variety of planters; the most popular being her funny face planters. "They bring a smile to everyone's face when they walk by!"

This will be her second year at the Farmer's Market Annex and, as with all our vendors, Elise already has a great customer story. "Recently I had a customer contact me worried because she was newly fostering a cat, and couldn't find the air plant from the planter she had purchased. She was so relieved when I informed her that airplants are not toxic to animals and that I could get her a replacement plant. It was so funny when she contacted me the next day that she found the plant mixed in with other miscellaneous cat toys behind the couch, and it was still in great shape!"

These things survive cats? My couch couldn't even survive that! Stop by For the Love of Airplants your next trip to the farmers market and get yourself one of these easy to care for, and clearly durable, plants.
